Privacy policy

Enerdeal attaches great importance to your privacy. Although most of the information on this website is available without providing any personal data, it is possible the user is asked to provide personal information. This information will only be used to keep you informed of our activities. The user or visitor can always object to the use of this personal information for direct marketing. Therefore, the user or visitor will address himself to Enerdeal. Your personal details will never be given to third parties.

In accordance with the law enacted on the 8th of December 1992 concerning the processing of personal details, the user is legally entitled to the inspection and if necessary, the correction of his or her personal details. Provided that you are able to give a proof of identity (e.g. copy of your identity card) you can receive the written report of your personal details entirely free of charge by means of a written, dated and signed application addressed to Enerdeal. If necessary, you can always ask for a correction of the erroneous, incomplete and irrelevant details.

Enerdeal can collect anonymous or authorized information which is not of personal nature, such as the type of browser or IP-address, the operating programme you use or the domain name of the website by which you found our website or by which you leave the website. This enables us to optimize our website permanently for our users or visitors.

The use of “cookies”

When you visit our website, there is a possibility ‘cookies’ are placed on the hard disk of your computer, this simply and solely in order to gear the website to the needs of the returning user or visitor.
